Baptism

"No one is born a Christian."

So says James White, past president of the North American Academy of Liturgy and professor of liturgical studies at Drew University before his death in 2004.

"One becomes a Christian," White says, "through becoming part of a community with a distinctive way of life involving definite ethical and creedal commitments. This change in our being is marked by sacraments that proclaim what God is doing to bring us to faith."

Since it is the season of Easter, in worship this month I will be focusing the sermons on the sacrament of baptism—the rite of Christian initiation that marks our reception into the church.

From the earliest centuries, baptism has been associated with Easter. Tertullian in On Baptism (c. 200) says, "The Passover provides the day of most solemnity for baptism, for then was accomplished our Lord's passion, and into it we are baptized." At that time, people receiving baptism would be instructed for three years, followed by final preparations during Holy Week and baptism on Easter morning.

Baptism has many facets, so we will need several weeks to begin to unpack its meaning. We will use the epistle of 1 Peter as our guide, since it was most likely addressed to those who were new to the faith. In fact, some scholars even believe that the epistle is itself the text of a baptism liturgy.

We will look at the following topics:

- May 1: "My Water Broke!: Baptism as New Birth"
 - May 8: "Gets the Stains that Others Leave Behind: Baptism as Forgiveness of Sin"
 - May 15: "Buried in Water: Baptism as Union with Jesus Christ"
 - May 22: "The Best Lego Collection Ever: Baptism as Incorporation into the Church"
 - May 29: "Earth, Wind & Fire: Baptism as Reception of the Holy Spirit"
- Most of all, we will explore how this sacrament is a powerful channel through which God has chosen to make grace available to us.
- During worship on May 29, those who are baptized will have the opportunity to reaffirm their baptism, and those who are not yet baptized will have the opportunity to do so.
- Come, and let us celebrate what it means to be a people who are water-washed and Spirit-born!
- Grace and Peace,
Austin Hornyak, Pastor

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

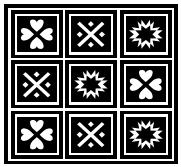

For the past several months we have visited the various Women's Sunday School classes. From about 1956 to 1965 the Bethel class was very active. It included married and single men and women. It was a very well organized group with by laws and an official board. They met each Sunday morning in the room above the office and were fortunate to have as teachers, Dr. Felton and Dr. Porter among others. The membership of the class averaged about 40. The official board met twice a year for business and also to plan social events of which there were four a year. It was a very active and popular group. Unfortunately, it was also a time when families moved out to the "country" or were transferred out of town and the membership of the church was changing and the group disbanded. Perhaps in the near future a similar group could be formed???

WHAT IS A PRAYER QUILT?

Can you touch a prayer?
Can you pull it close and feel its comfort?
You can if it's part of a prayer quilt.

The idea behind these quilts is simple, yet powerful. A heavy thread is used to take stitches through the quilt layers, and the ends are left free to be tied with a square knot. As each knot is tied, a silent prayer is offered for someone in special need — someone who has asked us to pray for them. The quilt is then given to that person. What makes each quilt so special is not the pattern, color or workmanship, but the fact that prayer is symbolically tied into each one. These comforters are a statement of faith, and a testimony to our belief in God and in the power of prayer.

A prayer quilt is appropriate for anyone who is experiencing physical, emotional, spiritual or some other life crisis and who feels they could benefit from being "covered in prayer," with the quilt being that tangible sign of God's ever present Grace, available to all of us.

How is a prayer quilt requested?

A "sponsor" requests a prayer quilt for someone in special need. The sponsor should be a regular part of the Mifflin Avenue Methodist Church congregation. The sponsor should contact Jeanne Mayo (412-242-0430) if a quilt is needed.

What are the sponsor's duties?

The sponsor must ask the recipient if they are willing to accept a prayer quilt and what specific prayers are requested. Sponsors are normally responsible for delivering the quilt to the recipient.

Why not "surprise" the recipient with a prayer quilt?

A "surprise" prayer quilt is not appropriate. The recipient might not be comfortable being a "prayer focus" for a congregation or any large group of people. There is also the question of confidentiality. We need to know how much information the recipient wants to be shared about their situation and what prayers they would like offered on their behalf.

Baptism: Christ's Act in the Church
 By Laurence Hull Stookey
 Abingdon, 1982, 208 pp., $22.00 paperback

Few issues within the church are as controversial as baptism. By which method should it be administered? At what age? What if one changes denominations? Laurence H. Stookey sifts through the confusion and rhetoric to offer this practical, biblically sound guide to baptism. He examines the sacrament from historical, theological, and pastoral perspectives, and looks at how it has been altered through the ages. Dr. Stookey also suggests possible reforms, practices that need restoring, and proper occasions for the service.

Premarital Sex in America: How Young Americans Meet, Mate, and Think about Marrying
 By Mark Regnerus and Jeremy Uecker
 Oxford University, 2011, 312 pp., $24.95 hardcover

Premarital Sex in America combines illuminating personal stories and comprehensive research surveys to provide the fullest portrait of heterosexuality among young adults ever produced. Mark Regnerus and Jeremy Uecker draw upon a wealth of survey data as well as scores of in-depth interviews with young adults from around the country, both in and out of college. Digging underneath stereotypes and unexamined assumptions, the authors offer compelling--and often surprising--answers to such questions as: How do the emotional aspects of sexual relations differ between young men and women? What role do political orientations play in their sexual relations? How have online dating and social networking sites affected the relationships of emerging adults? Why are young people today waiting so much longer to marry? How prevalent are nontraditional forms of sex, and what do people think of them?

BAKE GOODS NEEDED

 The United Methodist Women will hold their bake sale during the Rummage Sale on May 14th. Bake goods are needed for this sale. Bake goods such as cookies, cupcakes, pies, brownies would be greatly appreciated. All proceeds go towards missions. You can drop off your donations on Friday, May 13th from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. to the Church Secretary.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!!

God made a wonderful mother
 A mother who never grows old
 He made her smile of sunshine,
 And her heart of pure gold,
 In her cheeks he placed fair roses,
 In her eyes, stars that shine
 God made a wonderful mother,
 And that wonderful mother is mine.

What is Angel Food Ministries? With a heart to help others and a generous spirit, Joe and Linda Wingo founded Angel Food Ministries in 1994 to provide food for friends and neighbors who were struggling financially. Today, they are still doing the same thing. The Angel Food program now is helping provide food relief to more than 50,000 families each month. Angel Food Ministries is a non-profit, non-denominational organization dedicated to providing food relief and contributing to benevolent outreaches in communities throughout the United States. There are no qualifications, minimums, income restrictions, or applications. Everyone is encouraged to participate. Orders and distributions are handled by church host sites. Orders are collected by the host sites during the first part of each month. These orders are turned in to the Angel Food main office in Monroe, Georgia, on a predetermined date.

Several days later, in the same month, food is delivered to the host site by a pre-arranged delivery mode. The food is "restaurant grade" meats, frozen vegetables, fruits, dairy products, etc. which we acquire through our involvement with only the best producers/vendors of high quality, "name brand" foods. Never "seconds" or "day old" type products are involved. You can order as many regular units as you would like. To better help families in need, Angel Food Ministries participate in the Food Stamp Program. This program is designed to help low-income families buy the food they need for good nutrition.
